Matthew 9:35-38 :: March 7, 2010
Discussion Questions

1. In what way does Jesus want us to see the world in Matthew 9:35-38? How does this differ from the way we often view the world?

2. Who needs the Gospel? What is the difference between the way Christians should appropriate the Gospel and the way unbelievers should appropriate it? What similarities are there?

3. In what two ways are we to take the Gospel to the world (Hint: “in ____ and in ____”)? Give three practical examples of how you might do this.

4. How does Jesus’ view of people differ from ours? How should Jesus’ perception of people inform the way that we treat people of both high and low estate?

5. From Jesus’ perspective, what prevents the harvest from being brought in? In what way, big or small, might you contribute to “bringing in the harvest”?
